Subject contents

Fundamental contents of the subject

FIRST PART:: Economy, society and daily life

Prof. Dr. Jordi Bolòs

1. The formation of the medieval (and current) landscape: transitions
2. The transformations of the year 1000: how the society of Western Europe changed. Pros and cons
3. Occitania. Birth and destruction of a civilization. Conquests and colonizations in the Central Middle Ages

4. Living, surviving and pretending to be the end of the Middle Ages. Getting closer to people's daily lives

Block II: Church, thought and culture

Prof. Rogerio Tostes

1. Development and consolidation of the "Christianitas" in Europe in the first medieval centuries (IV-XI centuries)
2. The cultural renewal of the twelfth century and the evolution of thought during the Late Middle Ages
3. Origins and development of the university phenomenon (13th-15th centuries)
4. Daily life in the Middle Ages

Methodology

FIRST PART

It will be very important to read, understand and comment on the readings of the texts that must be done every day.

Much of the final grade will also be based on the completion of a work written after reading several books or articles.

Development plan

The content will be divided into two parts.

Each teacher will present and evaluate his part. The final grade of the subject will be the average of the two grades

Evaluation

FIRST PART

Block I

Attendance and participation in classes 30% (15% of the total mark)

Completion of a project on one of the topics studied 70% (35% of the total mark)
