Methodology

The audiovisual method will be the one used in the course. Students will learn through the use of books, material provided by the teacher and both oral and written exercises to practise production and comprehension. Regarding the four skills (i.e. reading, writing, listening and speaking), they will follow the criteria established by the CECR, according to which students will end the course with an A1.2 level.

The methodology will alternate HP and HNP, that is to say:

HP: in English "in-person hours", which will be carried out at university on Thursday and Friday from 8am to 10:00am.

HNP: in English "autonomous work hours" which will correspond to oral and written homework and essays, individual study, reading and extra practice through documents and/or links provided by the teacher.

Evaluation

Elements	%	Observations
Homework and assignments	25%	They might combine individual and pair-work tasks.
Oral exam	15%	The oral exam will be done in pairs or in groups of 3, depending on the total amount of students.
Mid-course exam	25%	The date will be given in class, once the cours begins.
Written exam	25%	It is necessary to get a 4 in order to calculate the final mark together with the rest of the elements. There will not be a resit exam as it represents less than the 30% of the final mark.
Attendance	10%

If plagiarised material is detected, we will apply what is established in the 'Regulations for the Assessment and Grading of Student Learning in UdL Bachelor's and Master's Degrees'.
