The audiovisual method will be the one used in the course. Students will learn through the use of books, material provided by the teacher and both oral and written exercises to practise production and comprehension. Regarding the four skills (i.e. reading, writing, listening and speaking), they will follow the criteria established by the CEFR, according to which students will end the course with an A1.2 level.

The methodology will alternate HP and HNP, that is to say:

HP: in English "in-person hours", which will be carried out at university on Thursday and Friday from 8am to 10:00am.

HNP: in English "autonomous work hours" which will correspond to oral and written homework and essays, individual study, reading and extra practice through documents and/or links provided by the teacher.
