Subject contents

Unit 1. Masterpiece: What is a classic?

Unit 2. Archetypes: Between Tradition and Modernity

Unit 3. The Art of Writing

Unit 4. Innovation and Avantgarde

Methodology

In this subject, lectures will be combined with practical sessions. In the practical sessions, the students will be asked to participate actively in activities focused on the analysis of the texts that will be dealt with during the classes. Group activities will be combined with discussions lead by the lecturer with the aim of helping the students to establish a dialogue between their previous knowledge and the contents dealt with in the lectures and, also, with the texts analysed in class, both the theoretical and fictional ones.

* The assignment has to follow the style rules established by the English Department (UdL) that will be found in 'Espai compartit' of the subject, campus virtual.

* 5 basic mistakes in either of the two tests or the final assignment will entail a 4.

* It is necessary to carry out all the activities in order to obtain a final mark.

PLAGIARISING consists of copying text from unacknowledged sources -whether this is part of a sentence or a whole text- with the intention of passing it off as the student's own production. It includes cutting and pasting from internet sources, presented unmodified in the student's own text. Plagiarising is a SERIOUS OFFENCE. Students must respect authors' intellectual property, always identifying the sources they may use; they must also be responsible for the originality and authenticity of their own texts. IF PLAGIARISING IS DETECTED, THE REGULATION REGARDING TEACHING ASSESSMENT AND QUALIFICATIONS OF BACHELOR'S AND MASTER'S DEGREES AT THE UDL WILL BE IMPLEMENTED.
