Students must always cite the author when quoting from a source. To learn how to cite properly, please check "Guia de treballs acadèmics" (Available in Resources). If a student does not cite the author of a passage, this will be considered plagiarism.

If plagiarised material is detected, we will apply what is established in the 'Regulations for the Assessment and Grading of Student Learning in UdL Bachelor's and Master's Degrees'. Accordingly, any piece of evaluation containing plagiarism will imply that both that piece of evaluation and the subject will be graded a fail mark (0), with no possibility of a resit assessment.

Students taking this subject are expected to have a B2 level of English. Therefore, students should show grammatical and lexical ability at B2 level in order to pass the subject.

Basic grammatical mistakes will be penalized by subtracting 0.25 point per basic mistake. If the student's piece of evaluation contains more than 5 basic mistakes, the piece of evaluation will be graded a fail mark.

Students must carry out all items of evaluation in order to be evaluated.

Evaluation is continuous. Those students who combine their studies with a full-time job or a part-time job with schedules coinciding with classes have the right to apply for alternative assessment within 5 days from the start of the semester. For more information, please write an e-mail to lletres.secretariacentre@udl.cat, or ask for information at the Faculty's office (Secretaria de la Facultat de Lletres).
