Module 4:

- Experimental life-writing

Methodology

In this subject, lectures will be combined with practical sessions in presential as well as virtual mode. In the practical sessions, the students will be asked to participate actively in activities focused on the analysis of the texts that will be dealt with during the classes. In addition, several discussions lead by the lecturer will be carried out with the aim of helping the students to establish a dialogue between their previous knowledge and the contents dealt with in the lectures and, also, with the selected texts analysed in class. Moreover, a group project will be done with the aim of bringing the students closer to the interpretative techniques of different types of the autobiographical genre, collaborative work and the use of digital tools.

Lectures will be held face-to-face from October, as long as the situation does not change.
