Subject's extra information

Assignment of acquisition of knowledge about Occitan of the Vall d'Aran which mainly pursues that the student obtains a practical competition in Aranese while being able to identify and scientifically reason the linguistic facts that characterize this variety. The subject should therefore suppose a leap forward in the study and acquisition of Occitan from the contents related to the oc language obtained previously in the same degree in Catalan and Occitan Studies. Linguistic contents are accompanied by a necessary approach to Aranese history, geography and culture, as well as the process of officialization and promotion of Occitan in the Aran Valley, to the legal provisions that affect it and the sociolinguistic reality of the Gascon to the south of the Franco-Spanish border.

Subject with prerequisites: in order to be able to enroll this subject, students must have studied the subject Occità referencial I

Learning objectives

Capacity for oral and written communication in aranese Occitan

Ability to identify the main territorial modalities of aranese Occitan

Ability to perform linguistic analyzes and comments on oral and written texts in Aranese, from a diachronic and synchronous point of view
