Subject contents

- The Final Degree Project (TFG) consists of the elaboration of an original work, individually, which applies and integrates the knowledge acquired throughout the degree studies.
- It must be supervised by a tutor, who will be a teacher who teaches in the degree in Catalan Philology and Occitan Studies, and who will be assigned by the coordinator of the degree.
- The TFG must be in all cases an original work and of own elaboration.
- The TFG can deal with any topic related to the subjects of the Degree.
- The main objective of the TFG is to allow the student to apply in an integrated way various skills acquired in the degree.
- The TFG will materialize in the elaboration of a written work, that the student will have to defend publicly before a evaluating court.
- In order to be able to present the TFG, it is an indispensable condition to get the authorization of the tutor

Methodology

- The Final Degree Project (TFG) is a research project that will be carried out individually by the student under the supervision of a tutor, who will guide the student through the process.
- The objective of the TFG is to allow the student to apply the different competencies of the degree in an integrative way. The TFG will be materialized in the preparation of a written work, which must be authorized by the tutor.
- Guidance dimension: between 30 and 40 standard pages (Times New Roman 12, line spacing 1.5) notes included, and graphics, documentary sources, etc. may be attached.
- In accordance with current regulations, the tutor must convene an initial tutorial and at least four face-to-face or virtual tutorials with the student.

- See the document of recommendations for the follow-up of the TFG in the web of the degree.

Development plan

Calendar of tutorials and recommended follow-up mechanisms:

After the Degree Coordinator has made the assignments of tutor, he / she and the student must jointly decide on a work plan, as specified in the TFG regulations of the Faculty of Letters.

The student and tutor must complete a minimum of four additional face-to-face or virtual tutorials. The following schedule is recommended:

December: Tutoring with the tutor to finish outlining the topic to be developed and establish a work schedule.

January: Delivery of a proposal developed by the TFG that includes the theoretical / methodological approach, planned script and bibliography. Tutoring with the tutor.

February: Delivery of the part of the work agreed with the tutor and tutoring.

March / April: Delivery of the second part of the work agreed with the tutor and tutoring.

Until May 20: Delivery of a predefined version for review and tutoring.

May 26-31: Delivery of the final version and verification by the tutor that the indications and / or suggestions made in the latest version of the TFG have been correctly incorporated.

At this point, the tutor must decide whether the final version of the TFG is suitable for filing or may suggest changes / modifications before filing on the date set in the calendar.

Additional recommendations:

- It is recommended that the tutor establish all face-to-face or virtual tutorials by e-mail so that it is recorded.
- It is recommended that the different deliveries agreed with the tutor be made by e-mail so that it is recorded.
