Methodology

Work in the classroom (virtual/ online). It will provide the basic concepts of each subject, counting on the expansion and deepening that will make the students, using the basic and complementary information of each subject. In this sense, the frame of reference will be an approximation to the "flipped learning" / "flipped classroom" methodology ("inverse learning" or "inverse classroom"), giving back to the conventional class, so that the student also prepare the contents previously, to facilitate individual and collaborative work. Four sessions will be linked to Service Learning (SL/ ApS) in relation to Social Work and Mediation and Conflict Resolution). Also videoforums of films and documentaries on the conflict and methods of resolution and mediation will be realized.

Directed works. These are tools to carry out the application of the subject's contents to specific cases and will also work on specialized articles, concrete initiatives to deepen their knowledge and stimulate the research of each student, choosing the scope for the application of Negotiation, Mediation and Conflict Resolution. They will also be used to resolve any doubts that may arise in the preparation of the group work.

Individual tutorials. Attendance and / or non-attendance. Its goal is to follow the learning process of each student. They will also serve to consult the doubts that may arise in the elaboration of individual work, in particular, and other doubts about the content and development of the subject, in general.

Development plan

To materialize in classroom (virtual/online), with the students

Evaluation

It is mandatory attendance to the sessions in a percentage of not less than 80% since the different classroom (virtual) activities involve direct and experimental learning in the classroom (virtual-online).

Content of Continuous Evaluation:

- Performing group and individual work. Participation in the classroom. Practical cases, videoforum, current conflicts (press, mass media, social networks, Internet, etc.), reading and analyzing chapters of books and/ or articles. Valuation of 10% each practice up to a maximum of 5 points.
- Writing an individual work related to the contents of the subject (non-presential/non-attendance): 25%.
- Recension of an article, book chapter or book related to the subject (non-presential/ non-attendance): 25%.
