Subject's extra information

The subject is presented with a basically practical character. The main goal is for students to be able to know, first hand and on the ground, how the day-to-day management of a mountain area is managed.

The workshop will take place around a natural park. It will consist of a 4-day outing and an exhibition of the work from course to class, at the UDL, on a date to be set with the group, in addition to the autonomous work by the student.

This teaching guide has been automatically translated with Google Translate. In case of problems, the Catalan version will prevail.

Learning objectives

- Identify and analyze the key resources of the tourist potential of Mediterranean mountain territories.
- Know the main impacts generated by tourism activity in Mediterranean mountain areas.
- Apply the observed knowledge of the tourist activity in the design of studies of potential, capacity of loading or development of tourist products in the Mediterranean mountains.

Competences

Basic

B07 That students know how to apply the acquired knowledge and have the capacity to solve problems in new or little-known environments within broader (or multidisciplinary) contexts related to their area of study

B09 That students know how to communicate their conclusions -and the knowledge and ultimate reasons that support them- to specialized and non-specialized audiences in a clear and unambiguous way

Generals

CG1 Assess the mechanisms of interaction of society with the environment in the perspective of decision-making.

CG2 Manage and use the methods and techniques of analysis and interpretation of socio-economic and environmental variables and statistical sources.

CG3 Work in a team in a multidisciplinary context with the ability to incorporate the contributions made from different conceptual and methodological fields through shared reflection and work.

CG4 Analyze the underlying dynamics of new and complex situations, design alternative resolution strategies and take advantage of the potential for improvement.

Specific

WORKSHOP: MEDITERRANEAN MOUNTAIN AND TOURISM 2022-23

CE1 Recognize, characterize and interpret the physical and human uniqueness of the mountain and explain the diversity of mountain territories.

CE6 Design business development projects in the context of public plans and aid for the development and promotion of rural and mountain areas.

Subject contents

The contents of the workshop may vary annually, depending on the number of attendees and the spaces visited. However, in general terms, aspects such as:

- Ecological singularities and socioeconomic dynamics in the dry mountain
- Methodologies, instruments and sources of information for carrying out a tourism potential analysis
- Agents and experiences in the revitalization of local tourism
- Analysis of tourist potential and design of tourism strategies for mountain territories (teamwork)
