Subject's extra information

In the curriculum as a whole, the Advanced Qualitative Methods of Marketing Analysis course is part of Module 3, which focuses on scientific analysis methods and research in the social sciences, and their application in the field of social media marketing.

In this subject the student will be trained in different techniques and methods of qualitative analysis in marketing. With this module the student will learn to master advanced qualitative methods and to know how to choose the most appropriate method for each type of problem.

The course will cover the planning and design of qualitative research, the design and application of qualitative data collection techniques, the techniques and methods to analyze such data, and finally the preparation of reports with qualitative data. The qualitative analysis software Atlas.Ti will be used.

Competences

Basic

CB1 Possess and understand knowledge that provides a basis or opportunity to be original in the development and / or application of ideas, often in a research context

CB2 Know how to apply the knowledge acquired and be able to solve problems in new or little-known settings within broader (or multidisciplinary) contexts related to their area of study

CB3 Being able to integrate knowledge and face the complexity of formulating judgments based on information that, being incomplete or limited, includes reflections on the social and ethical responsibilities linked to the application of their knowledge and judgments.

CB4 Know how to communicate their conclusions –and the knowledge and ultimate reasons that support them– to specialized and non-specialized audiences in a clear and unambiguous way

CB5 Possess the learning skills that allow them to continue studying in a way that will have to be largely self-directed or autonomous
